- How important was the role of misperceptions in the origins of the First World War? (QT 2001/Trinity)
- 'None of the powers involved had a clear idea of their war aims in 1914.' Discuss. (M.Phil 2003)
- 'Neo-realism can explain the causes of the First World War but not those of the Second.' Discuss. (M.Phil 2002)
- To what extent was the outbreak of war in 1914 the result of colonial rivalries? (M.Phil 2001)
- Was the deadlock during the First World War military or diplomatic or both? (M.Phil 2000)

War Aims

- Did German War aims differ in principle from those of the other European great power at the outbreak of the First World War? (QT 2002/Easter)
- Why was Germany prepared to take the risk of war in July 1914? (QT 2002/Trinity)
- How far did domestic factors shape the foreign policy of Germany in the period EITHER from 1900 to 1917 OR from 1933 to 1941? (QT 2001/Easter)
- Analyse the reasons for which any one European power went to war in 1914. (QT 2000)
- 'War aims were, in fact, weapons of war' (Taylor). Discuss with reference to war aims in EITHER the First World War OR the Second World War. (M.Phil 2001)
- 'Germany went to war in 1914 because its leaders believed that doing so was bound to be better than not doing so.' Discuss. (M.Phil 2000)

Competing Notions of Peace Making after the First World War

- 'The League of Nations did not fail; it was never tried.' Is this a fair assessment? (QT 2005/Easter)
- How did the war aims of the Allied powers affect the final peace settlement at Paris in 1919? (QT 2005/Trinity)
- 'If they could have done better, they certainly could have done much worse' (Margaret Macmillan). Is this a fair assessment of the achievements of the peacemakers at Paris in 1919? (QT 2004/Easter)
- Was the peace settlement of 1919 doomed from the start or was it undermined by the Great Depression? (QT 2003/Easter)
- Would a truly Wilsonian peace have been an improvement on the Paris peace of 1919? (QT 2003/Trinity)
- "Peoples and provinces are not to be bartered about from sovereignty to sovereignty as if they were mere chattels and pawns in a game, even the great game, now for ever discredited, of the Balance of Power" (Woodrow Wilson February 1918). Assess Wilson's view of the necessary conditions for peace at the end of the First World War. (QT 2002/Easter)
- Was national self-determination the only realistic principle on which to base the Paris settlement? (QT 2002/Trinity)
- 'It was national interest not ideals or principles that explains the policies of all of the Great Powers in the negotiation of the Paris Peace settlement.' Do you agree? (QT 2001/Easter)
- 'Woodrow Wilson combined profound idealism with profounder ignorance' (L.C.B. Seaman). Discuss. (QT 2000)
- While Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Points 'provided a splendid propaganda platform of high moral tone, they were too ambiguous to serve as the basis for a peace settlement.' Do you agree? (M.Phil 2005)
- 'The peace settlement in the Middle East after the First World War lacked both legitimacy and a stable distribution of power.' Why then did it last until after the Second World War? (M.Phil 2002)
- 'The Paris peace settlement was harsh in the wrong places and lenient in the wrong ways.' Discuss. (M.Phil 2000)

Middle East

- Assess the impact of the post-World War I settlement on the stability of EITHER the Middle East OR the Far East. (QT 2001/Trinity)
- Is it fair to call the post-World War I settlement in the Middle East a victors' peace? (QT 2000)
- 'The peace settlement in the Middle East after the First World War lacked both legitimacy and a stable distribution of power.' Why then did it last until after the Second World War? (M.Phil 2002)
- Did Britain plant the seeds of conflict in Palestine during the mandate period? (M.Phil 2000)
