

There are a lot of people who I am proud to have served with in the service that must not be named.

I hope they all come through this time well.