1	A bottle of J.P. Wiser's Dissertation Canadian Rare Cask Series whiskey. Dr Livermore is one of few people with a PhD in distilling. This complex whisky is the result of his studies in the effects of barrels on whisky. Virgin oak imparts bronze colour and fruity character to this whisky. Green apple, pear, and honey with rye spices on the nose and orchard fruit balanced with oak on the palate.	Elizabeth Smyth	$70	$40
2	Solo performance by concert-accordionist Michael Bridge, named one of Canada's '30 under 30' classical musicians by CBC. Past buyers at this auction have had Michael perform for corporate parties, weddings, family gatherings and house parties. Repertoire TBD potentially including Bach, Tchaikovsky, Leonard Cohen, the Beatles, and jazz standards.	Michael Bridge	$1,500	$200
3	A "Dream Date" Package: Includes the use of a luxury vehicle for a weekend and a $100 gift certificate for dinner at Il Ponte restaurant. The winner can choose from among four Lincoln models-- MKC, MKX, Continental, or MKZ. Certain restrictions apply regarding mileage (500 km max) and the winner/designated driver must be licensed to drive in the province of Ontario. The vehicle needs to remain in the province of Ontario.	Karen Krasny & Peter Krasny with Downtown Ford Lincoln	$500	$100
4	Grace, Polley, and Atwood: Bid on Lily Cho's (the York Visiting Scholar) personal hardcover copy of Margaret Atwood's Alias Grace autographed by Canadian filmmaker Sarah Polley. Polley was the screenwriter and producer of this recent hit series.	Lily Cho	Respect of the Canadian Literati	$20
5	Massey Fashion Catalogue: Rowing Blazers. Classic American style was born in British boathouses, where the very first blazers were fashioned for college rowing clubs. This book offers an insider's guide to the elaborately striped, piped, trimmed, and badged garments, as well as the stories, athletes, historic clubs, and races associated with them.	Allan Peterkin	$70	$20
6	Come Sail Away: A 3-hour sailing excursion and lesson for up to 4 people on Lake Ontario with the co-chairs of the Massey College Yacht Club, Elizabeth Rouget and Jason Brennan. Elizabeth is a nationally certified sailing instructor with Sail Canada; she's been skippering for 15 years, and has competed internationally—her greatest claim to fame is coming second in the Student Yachting World Cup. Jason been sailing for 3 years, as skipper and crew; he holds a basic skipper certification with Sail Canada—and he's also really good at following Liz's orders as first mate. Included in this bid is one sailboat rental, lifejackets for all crew members, 3 hours of sailing on Lake Ontario, including lesson based on skill. Bids from experienced sailors and boat-owners are also highly encouraged! Elizabeth and Jason will tailor your sailing lesson and excursion to your experience. Amy Côté	$150	$50
11	Constituional Coconut Cream Pie. Made by my husband, Zachary Green. I have it on good authority that his coconut cream pie is better than the justly famous coconut cream pie by Joanne Yolles of Scaramouche. Some Massey folks already know that Zach is an ace constitutional lawyer who has represented Ontario on such recent Supreme Court cases as Carter v. Canada (on the question of our right to medically-assisted death) and Trinity Western University v. the Law Society of Upper Canada (on religious freedom and legal education). But most people do not know that Zach is completing his Pastry Chef certification at George Brown College. So this is not any coconut cream pie. It's not even just a pie that rivals the offerings of Scaramouche. It is a pie that is crafted with a deep understanding of charter issues as they pertain to baking.	Lily Cho	$50	$20
12	Getting Things From High Shelves: A repeat of years gone by: Things out of reach? Need some extra height? Invest in a service that helps you reach higher. Literally. Get three times worth of unreachable items within your grasp, whenever you need.	Erik Brown	Out of Reach	$5
